This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a department store in Philadelphia, Pa., with violating the Fur Products Labeling Act by failing to comply with the labeling and invoicing requirements, and by advertising in newspapers which falsely identified the animals producing certain furs and failed to disclose that certain products contained artificially colored or cheap fur, which compared "original" prices with "now" prices without designating the time of the former and used comparative prices and percentage savings claims and represented prices as reduced without maintaining adequate records as a basis for such claims.

After acceptance of an agreement for a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 8 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Blauner's, a corporation, and its officers, and respondent's representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale, in commerce, or the transportation or distribution, in commerce, of fur products, or in connection with the offering for sale, sale, advertising, transportation or distribution of fur products which have been made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce", "fur", and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:
