(d) The amount of the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate; and

(e) The deferred payment price.

6. Failing, in any advertisement, to make all disclosures in the manner, form and amount required by § 226.10 of Regulation Z.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order to cease and desist be delivered to all present and future personnel of respondents engaged in the consummation of any consumer credit transaction or any aspect of preparation, creation, or placing of advertising, and failing to secure from each such person a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in the corporate respondent, such as dissolution, assignment, or sale resultant in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries, or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist contained herein.

Issued: October 26, 1970.

PART 13—PROHIBITED TRADE PRACTICES

Samuel Shindler and Bugle Toy Manufacturing Co.

Subpart—Importing, selling, or transporting flammable wear: § 13.1060 Importing, selling, or transporting flammable wear.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended, 67 Stat. 111, as amended; 15 U.S.C. 45, 1191) [Cease and desist order, Samuel Shindler et al., Pawtucket, R.I., Docket C-1816, Nov. 2, 1970]

In the Matter of Samuel Shindler, an Individual Trading as Bugle Toy Manufacturing Co.

Consent order requiring a Pawtucket, R.I., distributor of various party products including paper hula skirts to bring such skirts within the applicable flammability standards of the Flammable Fabrics Act or destroy said skirts.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Samuel Shindler, individually and trading as Bugle Toy Manufacturing Co., or under any other name or names, and respondent's representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from manufacturing for sale, selling, offering for sale, in commerce, or importing into the United States, or introducing, delivering for introduction, transporting or causing to be transported in commerce, or selling or delivering after sale or shipment in commerce, any product, fabric or related material; or manufacturing for sale, selling or offering for sale, any product made of fabric or related material which has been shipped or received in commerce, as "commerce," "product," "fabric," or "related material" are defined in the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, which product, fabric or related material, fails to conform to an applicable standard or regulation continued in effect, issued or amended under the provisions of the aforesaid Act.

It is further ordered, That the respondent herein shall, within ten (10) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission an interim special report in writing setting forth the respondent's intentions as to compliance with this order. This interim special report shall also advise the Commission fully and specifically concerning the identity of the product which gave rise to the complaint, (1) the amount of such product in inventory, (2) any action taken to notify customers of the flammability of such product and the results thereof, and (3) any disposition of such product since January 16, 1970. Such report shall further inform the Commission whether respondent has in inventory any fabric, product or related material having a plain surface and made of paper, silk, cotton, rayon, acetate and nylon, acetate and rayon, or combinations thereof in a weight of 2 ounces or less per square yard or fabric with a raised fiber surface made of cotton or rayon or combinations thereof. Respondent will submit samples of any such fabric, product or related material with this report. Samples of the fabric, product or related material shall be of no less than 1 square yard of material.

It is further ordered, That the respondent herein either process the hula skirts which gave rise to this complaint so as to bring them within the applicable flammability standards of the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, or destroy said hula skirts.

It is further ordered, That the respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

Issued: November 2, 1970.

PART 13—PROHIBITED TRADE PRACTICES

Unique Industries, Inc., and Everett Novak

Subpart—Importing, selling, or transporting flammable wear: § 13.1060 Importing, selling, or transporting flammable wear.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interpreta or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U.S.C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Unique Industries, Inc., et al., Philadelphia, Pa., Docket C-1815, Nov. 2, 1970]

In the Matter of Unique Industries, Inc., a Corporation, and Everett Novak, Individually and as an Officer of Said Corporation

Consent order requiring a Philadelphia, Pa., seller of novelty items and party favors to cease selling or distributing wood chips leis unless they are within the applicable flammability standards of the Flammable Fabrics Act.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Unique Industries, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, and Everett Novak, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from the advertising, offering for sale, sale or distribution of wood chip leis in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, unless and until said wood chip leis or wood chip products are flameproofed to such an extent that they will not ignite, burn or glow.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify all of their customers who have purchased or to whom have been delivered the products which gave rise to this complaint of the flammable nature of such products, and effective recall of such products from said customers.

It is further ordered, That the respondents herein either process the fabrics which gave rise to this complaint and any wearing apparel made from said fabrics so as to bring them within the applicable flammability standards of the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, or destroy said fabrics or any wearing apparel made therefrom.

It is further ordered, That the respondents herein shall within ten (10) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission an interim special report in writing setting forth the respondents' intention as to compliance with this order. This interim special report shall also advise the Commission fully and specifically concerning the identity of the product or related material which gave rise to the complaint (1) the number of such products in inventory, (2) any action taken and any further actions proposed to be taken to notify customers of the flammability of such products and of the results of such actions, (3) any disposition of such products since December 15, 1969, and (4) any action taken or proposed to be taken to flameproof or destroy such products and the results of such action.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days after any proposed change in the corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

It is further ordered, That the respondent corporation shall forthwith distribute a copy of this order to each of its operating divisions.

It is further ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

In the Matter of Washington Careers, Inc., a Corporation, Trading as Juliet Gibson Career College and Finishing School, and Richard A. Parrott and R. Wade Murphree, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation

Consent order requiring a Washington, D.C., school of fashion merchandising, professional modeling and secretarial skills to cease misrepresenting that it is affiliated with the Juliet Gibson Corp. or any nationwide chain, misrepresenting its placement and tutoring facilities, failing to disclose additional obligations connected with its courses, misrepresenting that its courses qualify students to be airline hostesses, and misrepresenting that its curriculum or methods of instruction are on the college level.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Richard A. Parrott, and R. Wade Murphree individually and their agents, representatives and employees in connection with the advertising, offering for sale, sale or distribution of any course of instruction or any other service or product, in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents are associated or affiliated with, or are a franchisee of Juliet Gibson Corp.; or misrepresenting, in any manner, respondents' trade or business connections, associations, affiliations or identity.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents are a part of a national corporation, or that they are a part of a nationwide chain which operates career schools in major cities in the United States; or misrepresenting, in any manner, the size, scope, or extent of respondents' business.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents' school or respondents' courses have been accredited, unless such is the fact.

4. Misrepresenting, in any manner, the building or facilities which respondents have or made available for student use.

5. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents provide a placement service which places a significant number of students or graduates in positions for which they have been trained unless such is the fact; or misrepresenting, in any manner, their capabilities or facilities for assisting students or graduates in finding employment, or the assistance actually afforded students or graduates in obtaining employment.

6. Representing, directly or by implication, availability of jobs or the positions available to graduates of respondents' school as the result of the training afforded the students by respondents unless such is the fact.

7. Representing, directly or by implication, that individual tutoring will be provided to those students having difficulty with their classwork upon request unless such is the fact; or misrepresenting, in any manner, the assistance provided students during their enrollment at respondents' school.

8. Representing, directly or by implication, that there is any urgency or need for haste in enrolling in any class unless such is the fact; or that enrollment in any class will not be permitted after a class has commenced, unless respondents refuse in every instance to allow enrollment after commencement of a class.

9. Advertising or soliciting enrollment in any course of instruction when there is any limitation or additional obligation imposed or attempted to be imposed upon enrollment in that course without clearly disclosing such limitation or additional obligation in any advertisement and during any solicitation.

10. Representing, directly or by implication, that the subjects taught by respondents are equivalent to college level subjects, unless such is the fact; or misrepresenting, in any manner, the level of training afforded students through any subject or course of instruction, or the comparability of any subject or course of instruction given by respondents with any other school.

11. Representing, directly or by implication, that students will receive instruction in conversational Spanish or that students will receive training through practical exercise in fencing or modern dance unless such is the fact; or misrepresenting, in any other manner, the curriculum, subjects, method of instruction or training that students receive.

12. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents offer courses of instruction which qualify students to be airline stewardesses; or misrepresenting in any manner, the position or positions which a student will be qualified for as the result of attending any course which respondents offer.

13. Failing to deliver a copy of this order to cease and desist to all present and future salesmen or other persons engaged in the sale of respondents' courses or services, and failing to secure from each such salesman or other person a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order.

It is further ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

SUBCHAPTER E—RULES, REGULATIONS, STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY OR INTERPRETATION AND EXEMPTIONS UNDER THE FAIR PACKAGING AND LABELING ACT

PART 501—EXEMPTIONS FROM REQUIREMENTS AND PROHIBITIONS UNDER PART 500

Paper Table Covers, Sheets, and Pillow Cases

The Federal Trade Commission on October 8, 1970 (35 F.R. 15843), proposed § 501.5 of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act regulations which would exempt table covers, bed sheets, and pillow cases fabricated from paper from certain mandatory requirements of § 500.12 of the regulations. As proposed, paper table covers, bed sheets, and pillow cases would not be required to express area or dimensions in largest whole units of length and width, but would require these commodities to express actual length and width in inches. This is in keeping with the convention of measuring textile articles of the same categories in inches.

In response to the invitation to comments suggested that the proposed exemption be extended to these commodities when fabricated from textiles,
