Order

of the smoke from burning wood during its process of combustion sufficiently to acquire from such source alone all of its smoke or smoke effects for use in curing, preserving, smoking, or flavoring meats, and further ordering said respondent to file within 60 days from the service of said order a report in writing setting forth the manner and form of its compliance therewith, and having by order duly entered herein on July 27, 1935, extended the time for filing report of compliance with said order from 60 days after the service thereof to September 15, 1935; and by order duly entered herein on March 5, 1937 having stayed said proceedings until final decision by the Commission in the matters of Smoke Products Co., et al., Docket 2783, and Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co., et al., Docket 2784; and by order duly entered herein on May 20, 1938 having directed that this matter remain in fieri without prejudice to the right of the Commission forthwith to enter such final order as seems just at or after the Commission's final decision in the matters of Dockets 2783 and 2784, and the Commission having made its final decision in the matters of Dockets 2783 and 2784, and having duly entered and issued its findings as to the facts and conclusions and orders to cease and desist in these matters, and having duly considered the record herein.¹

It is ordered, That the respondent, Jefferson Island Salt Co., its officers, agents, employees, and representatives, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of salt in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from using the word "smoked" or the word "smoke," or any other word or words signifying smoke, or implying the use of smoke, to designate or describe salt offered for sale, or sold, for curing, preserving, smoking, or flavoring meats, unless the salt so described or designated has been or is directly subjected to the action and effect of the smoke from burning wood during its process of combustion sufficiently to acquire from such source alone all of its smoke or smoke effects for use in curing, preserving, smoking or flavoring meats.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within 60 days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.
