Order requiring two sellers in New York City to cease violating the Wool Products Labeling Act by labeling certain ladies' coats as "100% Cashmere" when they were composed entirely of sheep's wool, by failing to label wool products as required, and by failing to set forth separately on tags the fiber content of interlinings.

Mr. George Steinmetz for the Commission.

Mr. Charles M. Kagan, of New York City, for respondents.

DECISION OF THE COMMISSION

Pursuant to Rule XXII of the Commission's Rules of Practice, and as set forth in the Commission's "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance," dated January 18, 1955, the initial decision in the instant matter of hearing examiner Loren H. Laughlin, as set out as follows, became on that date the decision of the Commission.

INITIAL DECISION BY LOREN H. LAUGHLIN, HEARING EXAMINER

The Federal Trade Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) on August 31, 1954, issued its complaint herein under the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, against the above-named corporate respondents and against the respondents Bernard Drobos and Harry Brody, both individually and as officers of both of said corporations, charging them and each of them in several particulars with having violated the provisions of said Acts and of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission promulgated under said Wool Products Labeling Act. Said complaint was duly served upon each of said respondents. On September 20, 1954, all respondents filed their answer, and on October 4, 1954, pursuant to an order of the hearing examiner so authorizing, they filed their amended answer. The amended answer in substance admits all allegations of the complaint except that respondent Harry Brody denies being an officer of Dan-Del Coat Corp., and all respondents state they are without any knowledge as to whether the ladies' coats referred to in the complaint contained any of the hair or fiber of the Cashmere or Kashmir goat as alleged therein. Respondents reserved, however, in said amended answer, their right to submit proposed findings and conclusions of law and the right to appeal under the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

A hearing was held pursuant to the notice given in the complaint, at New York, New York, on October 26, 1954, before the above-named hearing examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, upon the issues presented by said complaint and amended answer. At such hearing respondents appeared by their above-named attorney of record and it was agreed between counsel supporting the complaint and all respondents by their said attorney that in lieu of the introduction of oral testimony and other evidence by the parties that the proceeding would be submitted for decision on the basis of a "Stipulation as to the Facts," upon which the hearing examiner might in his discretion proceed to make his initial decision, stating therein his findings as to the facts, including inferences to be drawn from said stipulation, and that an order might be entered by him disposing of the proceeding as to each and all of the respondents, in form and substance as set forth in the "Notice" portion of the complaint, without the filing of proposed findings and conclusions, or the presentation of oral argument. There was no waiver by respondents of their right to appeal and it was stipulated that if the proceeding should come before the Federal Trade Commission upon appeal from the hearing examiner's initial decision or by review upon the Commission's own motion, it may set aside the stipulation and remand the case to the hearing examiner for further proceedings under the complaint.

Upon the statements of counsel and upon due consideration of said stipulation by the hearing examiner, said stipulation was accepted by the hearing examiner and received in evidence, subject only to a reservation then made by counsel for respondents that later in the hearing he might also submit in evidence a photostatic copy of a certain bank resolution purporting to prove that the respondent Harry Brody had first become an officer of the respondent Dan-Del Coat Corporation on March 12, 1954. An exhibit purporting to be such bank resolution was thereafter offered in evidence on behalf of said respondent Harry Brody without objection and the same was received in evidence by the hearing examiner. This document, however, the hearing examiner finds is not in fact a bank resolution and at most is only indicative that one Gustave Daniels was the president of Dan-Del Coat Corp. on February 5, 1954, and it does not tend to prove or disprove any of the issues presented herein or in any manner affect the agreed facts set forth in the said "Stipulation as to the Facts."

Counsel for respondents also made an argument purporting to bear upon mitigation, explaining in substance the business losses claimed to have been sustained by the respondent Dan-Del Coat Corp. prior to its dissolution in connection with the sale or resale of certain of the misbranded coats involved herein; that Brae Burn Coats, Inc., a newly organized corporation has succeeded to the business of Dan-Del Coat Corp., now dissolved, and of which new corporation the respondents Bernard Drobos and Harry Brody are the officers and formulators of policy; and that such new corporation is conducting its business in accordance with the Wool Products Labeling Act. Such matters of alleged mitigation have no bearing in this particular proceeding which is preventive in nature. The complaint herein does not allege any intent to do a wrongful act. The Wool Products Labeling Act has among its express objectives, as stated in its Title, the protection of "producers, manufacturers, distributors, and consumers from the unrevealed presence of substitutes and mixtures in spun, woven, knitted, felted or otherwise manufactured wool products." The Act makes misbranding the gist of the offense and "contemplates corrective action by the Commission regardless of whether such misbranding is based upon wilfulness, negligence, or other causes." Smithline Coats, et al., 45 F. T. C. 79 (1948), opinion of Commissioner Ewin L. Davis, pp. 86, 87. And it just as clearly appears that whether the respondents here have profited or lost by the re-sale of misbranded garments after any alleged violation of the Act is immaterial to a decision in this particular proceeding on the issue of whether or not they were in fact misbranded contrary to the Act.

And now the proceeding having come on for final consideration and initial decision by the hearing examiner upon the complaint, answer, stipulation, evidence and statements and arguments of counsel made at the hearing, counsel having stipulated not to file proposed findings and conclusions, and the hearing examiner having duly considered the whole record herein, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public; that the complaint states in each alleged particular a cause for complaint under the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, and Rules and Regulations promulgated under the later act; and that the Commission has jurisdiction of the subject matter and of each of the parties respondent. The hearing examiner therefore makes the following findings of facts as so stipulated, the conclusions drawn therefrom, and order.

FINDINGS OF FACTS

PARAGRAPH 1. The corporate respondent Broadmore Fashions, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, and respondent Bernard Drobes is president and secretary, and respondent Harry Brody is vice president and treasurer thereof. These individual respondents formulate, direct and control the acts, policies and practices of the said corporate respondent, Broadmore Fashions, Inc.; and the principal office and place of business of each said corporate and individual respondents is 237 Mercer Street, New York 12, New York.

PAR. 2. The corporate respondent, Dan-Del Coat Corp., was a corporation organized under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York in January 1954, and thereafter continued to function as a corporate manufacturing, selling, and distributing organization until on or about September 15, 1954, at which time it filed a Certificate of Dissolution with the Department of State, State of New York, pursuant to the statutes of the State of New York, in such case made and provided.

PAR. 3. That during the existence of said corporate respondent, Dan-Del Coat Corp., the respondent Bernard Drobes acted as president, and the respondent Harry Brody, as secretary and treasurer thereof. These individual respondents, Bernard Drobes and Harry Brody formulated, directed and controlled the acts, policies and practices of said corporate respondent, Dan-Del Coat Corp., during the term of its existence, and the office and principal place of business of said respondents, including Dan-Del Coat Corp., was 286 Taaffe Place, Brooklyn, New York.

PAR. 4. Subsequent to the effective date of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, and more especially since September 1st, 1953, the said respondents, have manufactured for introduction into commerce, introduced into commerce, sold, transported, distributed, delivered for shipment and offered for sale in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in said Act, Wool products, as "wool products" are defined in said Act.

PAR. 5. Certain of said wool products were misbranded within the intent and meaning of Section 4 (a) (1) of said Wool Products Labeling Act and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder in that they were falsely and deceptively labeled or tagged with respect to the character and amount of the constituent fibers contained therein. Among such misbranded wool products were ladies' coats labeled or tagged by respondents as consisting of "100% Cashmere," whereas, in truth and in fact, said products were composed entirely of the wool of the genus sheep.

Order

51 F. T. C.

PAR. 6. Through the use of said labels, tags and legends aforesaid, respondents represented that said wool products were manufactured from fabrics composed of the hair or fiber of the Cashmere or Kashmir goat, which representations were false and deceptive in that they did not contain any of the hair or fiber of the Cashmere or Kashmir goat, but were composed entirely of fabrics manufactured from the wool of the genus sheep.

PAR. 7. Certain of said wool products were misbranded within the intent and meaning of Section 4 (a) (2) of said Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939 and of the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, in that they were not stamped, tagged or labeled as to disclose the name or the registered identification number of the manufacturer thereof or of one or more persons subject to Section 3 of said Act with respect to said wool products.

PAR. 8. Certain of said wool products were further misbranded in that the fiber content of the interlinings was not separately set forth on the stamps, tags, labels or other means of identification attached thereto.

CONCLUSIONS

The acts and practices of the respondents as above stipulated by the parties and hereinabove found to be factually true were and are in each particular in violation of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, and of the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder and constitute unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce, within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act. Although the Dan-Del Coat Corp. was dissolved subsequent to the institution of this proceeding, which dissolution took place on or about September 15, 1954, for the purposes of this proceeding the order hereinafter entered should run against it and its said officers.

ORDER

It is ordered, That respondent Broadmore Fashions, Inc., a corporation; respondent Dan-Del Coat Corp., a corporation; respondents Bernard Drobos and Harry Brody, individually and as officers of said corporations; and respondents' representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the offering for sale, sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, of ladies' coats or other "wool products," as such products are defined in and are subject to the said Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939; which products contain,
