IN THE MATTER OF

CAST-O-BRICK, INC., ET AL.

CONSENT ORDER, ETC., IN REGARD TO THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ACT

Docket C-1098. Complaint, Aug. 16, 1966—Decision, Aug. 16, 1966

Consent order requiring a St. Louis, Mo., home improvement company to cease using false pricing, and deceptive savings claims, and misrepresenting the physical qualities of its products.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Act, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Cast-O-Brick, Inc., a corporation, and Chester E. Swindel, individually and as an officer of said corporation, hereinafter referred to as respondents, have violated the provisions of said Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Cast-O-Brick, Inc., is a corporation organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Missouri, with its principal office and place of business located at 4525 Riverview Boulevard, in the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri.

Chester E. Swindel is an officer of the corporate respondent. He formulates, directs and controls the acts and practices of the corporate respondent, including the acts and practices hereinafter set forth. His address is the same as that of the corporate respondent.

PAR. 2. Respondents are now, and for some time last past have been, engaged in the advertising, offering for sale, sale and distribution of various items of home improvements, including residential siding to the purchasing public.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of their business, respondents now cause, and for some time last past have caused, their said products, when sold, to be shipped from their place of business in the State of Missouri to purchasers thereof located in other States of the United States, and maintain, and at all times mentioned herein have maintained, a substantial course of trade in said products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of their business, and for the purpose of inducing the purchase of their products, respondents represent, and have represented, directly or by implication, by advertising and promotional material and by direct oral solicitations made by respondents or their salesmen or representatives, that:

1. Homes of prospective purchasers have been specially selected as model homes for the installation of respondents' siding; after installation such homes would be used as points of reference for demonstration and advertising purposes by respondents; and, as a result of allowing their homes to be used as models, purchasers would be granted reduced prices or would receive allowances, discounts or commissions.

2. Respondents' products are being offered for sale at special or reduced prices, and that savings are thereby afforded purchasers from respondents' regular selling prices.

3. Products sold by respondents will never require repainting or repairing.

4. The color of the respondents' products will remain unchanged and will last a lifetime.

5. Respondents' products are everlasting and are made of indestructible materials.

6. Storm, hail and other elements will not damage the respondents' products.

7. Respondents' products and installations are "unconditionally guaranteed" in every respect without condition or limitation for an unlimited period of time.

PAR. 5. In truth and in fact:

1. Homes of prospective purchasers have not been selected as model homes for the installation of respondents' siding; after installations such homes are not used for demonstration and advertising purposes by respondents; and purchasers, as a result of allowing their homes to be used as models, are not granted reduced prices, nor do they receive allowances, discounts or commissions.

2. Respondents' products are not being offered for sale at special or reduced prices and savings are not granted respondents' customers because of a reduction from respondents' regular selling price. In fact, respondents do not have a regular selling price but the price at which respondents' products are sold vary from customer to customer depending on the resistance of the prospective purchaser.

3. Products sold by respondents will require painting and repairing.

4. The color of respondents' products will change and will not last a lifetime.

5. The respondents' products are not everlasting and can be destroyed.

6. Storms, hail and other elements will damage respondents' products.

7. Respondents' products and installations are not unconditionally guaranteed in every respect without conditions or limitations for an unlimited period of time. Such guarantee as may be provided is subject to numerous terms, conditions and limitations.

Therefore, the statements and representations as set forth in Paragraph Four hereof were and are false, misleading and deceptive.

PAR. 6. Respondents, in the manner aforesaid have made numerous representations in promotional literature and advertising material as to the composition, characteristics and quality of their "Cast-O-Stone" siding.

Typical and illustrative, but not all inclusive thereof, are the following:

Stone Fronts
Beautiful Homes of Stone
This is the Stone Age
Beautiful Interiors of Stone Exterior Walls

Through the use of the foregoing statements and representations and pictorial representations made in connection therewith, and others of similar import and meaning, but not specifically set out herein, respondents have represented and do now represent, directly or by implication, that their so-called "Cast-O-Stone" siding is genuine stone in its natural state.

In truth and in fact, respondents' so-called "Cast-O-Stone" siding is imitation stone siding and is not genuine stone or stone in its natural state.

Therefore, the foregoing statements and representations were and are false, misleading and deceptive.

PAR. 7. In the conduct of their business and at all times mentioned herein, respondents have been in substantial competition, in commerce, with corporations, firms and individuals in the sale of various items of home improvements, including residential siding, of the same general kind and nature as that sold by respondents.

PAR. 8. The use by respondents of the aforesaid false, misleading and deceptive statements, representations and practices has had, and now has, the capacity and tendency to mislead members of the purchasing public into the erroneous and mistaken belief that said statements and representations were and are true and into the purchase of substantial quantities of respondents' products by reason of said erroneous and mistaken belief.

PAR. 9. The aforesaid acts and practices of respondents, as herein alleged, were and are all to the prejudice and injury of the public and of respondents' competitors and constituted, and now constitute, unfair methods of competition in commerce and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce, in violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Federal Trade Commission having initiated an investigation of certain acts and practices of the respondents named in the caption hereof, and the respondents having been furnished thereafter with a copy of a draft of complaint which the Bureau of Deceptive Practices proposed to present to the Commission for its consideration and which, if issued by the Commission, would charge respondents with violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act; and

The respondents and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an agreement containing a consent order, an admission by the respondents of all the jurisdictional facts set forth in the aforesaid draft of complaint, a statement that the signing of said agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by the respondents that the law has been violated as alleged in such complaint, and waivers and provisions as required by the Commission's rules; and

The Commission, having reason to believe that the respondents have violated the Federal Trade Commission Act, and having determined that complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect, hereby issues its complaint, accepts said agreement, makes the following jurisdictional findings, and enters the following order:

C. That any price for respondents' products is a special or reduced price, unless such price constitutes a significant reduction from an established selling price at which such products have been sold in substantial quantities by respondents in the recent regular course of their business; or misrepresenting in any manner the savings available to purchasers.
