

2. The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this proceeding and of the respondent.

ORDER

I

It is ordered, That, for the purposes of this Order, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Textile Mill Product Corporation" means any corporation which at any stage processes, dyes, finishes, treats, fabricates, or manufactures one or more of the following named products: (1) yarn, (2) thread, (3) braids, (4) twine, (5) cordage, (6) broad woven fabric (fabric over 12 inches in width), (7) narrow woven fabric (fabric of 12 inches or less in width), (8) knit fabric, (9) carpet and rugs, (10) felt goods, (11) lace goods, (12) bonded fabrics, or (13) miscellaneous products manufactured from fiber by knitting, weaving, braiding or tufting. In addition, the definition of "Textile Mill Product Corporation" shall include any corporation which buys one or more of the aforesaid products in the gray, has such products finished on contract, and sells such products to purchasers other than end-users, such type of business operations being hereinafter referred to as "converting."

(b) "Textile Mill Product Assets" means assets, rights and privileges, tangible or intangible (other than non-exclusive licenses), including, but not restricted to, properties (other than real property, the disposition of which does not affect the continuation by the seller of the business in which such real property was used), plants machinery or equipment (other than machinery or equipment, the disposition of which does not affect the continuation by the seller of the business in which such machinery or equipment was used), inventories (other than products regularly and customarily purchased and sold in the ordinary course of business), contract rights, trade-marks, trade names or goodwill, of any person, partnership or corporation which are located, or have been located, in the United States or which are used in the United States, or which have been used in the United States, directly or indirectly, in or in connection with the processing, dyeing, finishing, treating, fabricating, manufacturing, or "converting" of one or more of the following named products: (1) yarn, (2) thread, (3) braids, (4) twine, (5) cordage, (6) broad woven fabric (fabric over 12 inches in width), (7) narrow woven fabric (fabric of 12 inches or less in width), (8) knit fabric, (9) carpet and rugs, (10) felt goods, (11) lace goods, (12) bonded fabrics, or (13) miscellaneous products manufactured from fiber by knitting, weaving, braiding or tufting.

II

It is further ordered, That, for a period of ten (10) years following the effective date of this order, Burlington Industries, Inc., shall cease and desist from acquiring directly or indirectly, through subsidiaries or otherwise, without the prior approval of the Commission the whole or any part of the stock or other share capital of any Textile Mill Product Corporation doing business in the United States and shall cease and desist from acquiring, directly or indirectly, through subsidiaries or otherwise, without the prior approval of the Commission any Textile Mill Product Assets. As used in this Paragraph, the acquisition of Textile Mill Product Assets includes any arrangement by respondent with any other party, pursuant to which such other party discontinues manufacturing any Textile Mill Products under a brand name or label owned by such other party and thereafter distributes any of said products under any of respondent's brand names or labels.

III

It is further ordered, That within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Order and at such further times as the Commission may require Burlington Industries, Inc., shall submit written reports to the Federal Trade Commission setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it intends to comply, is complying, or has complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That the respondent corporation shall forthwith distribute a copy of this order to each of its operating divisions.

IN THE MATTER OF

AUTOMATION MACHINE TRAINING CENTER, INC., ET AL.

CONSENT ORDER, ETC., IN REGARD TO THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ACT*Docket C-1474. Complaint, Jan. 6, 1969—Decision, Jan. 6, 1969*

Consent order requiring a Kansas City, Mo., data processing school to cease falsely representing the employment opportunities of its enrollees, the financial assistance and refund provisions afforded, that it operates dormitories, and that it teaches computer programming.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Act, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Automation Machine Training Center, Inc., a corporation, and Emmett R. Davis, individually and as an officer of said corporation, hereinafter referred to as respondents, have violated the provisions of said Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Automation Machine Training Center, Inc., is a corporation organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Missouri, with its principal office and place of business located at 611 West 39th Street, Kansas City, Missouri.

Respondent Emmett R. Davis is an individual and an officer of said corporation. He formulates, directs and controls the acts and practices of the corporate respondent, including the acts and practices hereinafter set forth. His address is the same as that of the corporate respondent.

PAR. 2. Respondents are now, and have been for more than three years last past, engaged in the offering for sale, sale and distribution of courses of instruction intended to prepare students thereof for employment in various positions in the field of electronic data processing. Said courses are pursued by correspondence through the United States mails and by resident training at respondents' place of business in Kansas City, Missouri.
