THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE FLAMMABLE FABRICS ACTS

Docket C-1722. Complaint, Apr. 8, 1970—Decision, Apr. 8, 1970

Consent order requiring a Pittston, Pa., manufacturer of party favors including wearing apparel in the form of paper leis to cease marketing dangerously flammable products and paper leis not flame proofed.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Acts, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe Party Time Mfg. Company, a partnership, and James J. Rosentel and Ruth Rosentel, individually and as copartners trading as Party Time Mfg. Company, hereinafter referred to as respondents, have violated the provisions of said Acts and the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Party Time Mfg. Company is a partnership. The said partnership is organized, exists and does business in the State of Pennsylvania with its office and principal place of business located at 11 Tunnell Street, Pittston, Pennsylvania.

Individual respondents James J. Rosentel and Ruth Rosentel are copartners in said partnership. They formulate, direct and control the acts, practices and policies of said partnership and their office and principal place of business is the same as that of the partnership.

Respondents are engaged in the business of manufacture and sale of party favors, including wearing apparel, in the form of paper leis.

PAR. 2. Respondents are now and for some time last past have been engaged in the manufacture for sale, the sale, and offering for sale, in commerce, and in the importation into the United States, and have introduced, delivered for introduction, transported and caused to be transported in commerce, and have sold or delivered after sale or shipment in commerce, fabrics and products as the terms "commerce," "fabric" and "product" are defined in the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, which fabrics and products failed to conform to an applicable standard or regulation continued in effect, issued or amended under the provisions of the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended.

Among such fabrics were paper and among such products were paper leis manufactured from such paper.

PAR. 3. The aforesaid acts and practices of respondents were and are in violation of the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, and constituted, and now constitute, unfair methods of competition and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 4. Respondents are now, and for some time last past, have been engaged in the advertising, offering for sale, sale and distribution of paper leis in commerce. Said paper leis are manufactured by the respondents and are shipped and sold in commerce. The aforesaid paper leis when manufactured by respondents are shipped from respondents' place of business in the State of Pennsylvania to customers located in various other States of the United States. Respondents maintained, and at all times mentioned, have maintained, a substantial course of trade in said products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 5. The respondents in manufacturing these leis have used paper which exhibited characteristics of rapid and intense burning and which, when used in the manufacture of the aforesaid leis, imparted to those products the same characteristics of rapid and intense burning so as to render such products dangerous and unsafe for use by individuals.

PAR. 6. The manufacture, sale and distribution of the aforesaid paper leis has had and now has the tendency and capacity to lead the purchasing public into the erroneous assumption that the said paper leis had been treated so as to make them safe for ordinary use. In truth and in fact the said leis have not been so treated.

PAR. 7. The aforesaid acts and practices of respondents as herein alleged were and are all to the prejudice and injury to the public and constitute unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

hereof, and the respondents having been furnished thereafter with a copy of a draft of complaint which the Bureau of Textiles and Furs proposed to present to the Commission for its consideration and which, if issued by the Commission, would charge respondents with violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended; and

The respondents and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an agreement containing a consent order, an admission by the respondents of all the jurisdictional facts set forth in the aforesaid draft of complaint, a statement that the signing of said agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by respondents that the law has been violated as alleged in such complaint, and waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission's Rules; and

The Commission having thereafter considered the matter and having determined that it had reason to believe that the respondents have violated the said Acts, and that complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect, and having thereupon accepted the executed consent agreement and placed such agreement on the public record for a period of thirty (30) days, now in further conformity with the procedure prescribed in § 2.34(b) of its Rules, the Commission hereby issues its complaint, makes the following jurisdictional findings, and enters the following order:
