

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the party respondent named above, as hereinafter more particularly designated and described, has violated and is now violating the provisions of Section 7 of the Clayton Act, as amended, (U.S.C. Title 15, Section 18) through the acquisition of the stock and assets of various corporations, as hereinafter more particularly designated and described, hereby issues its complaint pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 of the aforesaid Clayton Act (U.S.C. Title 15, Section 21) stating its charges in this respect in the following Count I.

The Federal Trade Commission, having further reason to believe that aforesaid party respondent also has violated and is now violating the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended (U.S.C. Title 15, Section 45), through the acquisition of the stock and assets of various corporations, as hereinafter more particularly designated and described, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it with reference thereto would be in the public witness Koman. It is the view of Commissioner MacIntyre that the testimony of witness Koman should have been stricken for the reason stated in a dissenting opinion by him in January 1971 [78 F.T.C.