This consent order requires, among other things, a California-based chain of consumer electronics stores to comply with the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and the Pre-Sale Availability of Written Warranty Terms Rule, which require retailers to make manufacturers' warranty information available to consumers, either (1) by displaying the text of the warranty near the warranted product, or (2) by furnishing the text of the warranty to customers upon request prior to sale, and prominently displaying signs advising customers of the availability of such warranties.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15 U.S.C. 2301 et seq., and Rule 702, 16 CFR Part 702, promulgated thereunder, and the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 41 et seq., and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Acts, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that The Good Guys, Inc., a corporation ("respondent"), has violated the provisions of said Acts and Rule 702 promulgated under the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it would be in the public interest, alleges:

PARAGRAPH 1. The definitions of terms contained in Section 101 of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15 U.S.C. 2301, and in Rule 702, 16 CFR 702.1 promulgated thereunder, shall apply to the terms used in this complaint.

PAR. 2. Respondent The Good Guys, Inc. is a corporation organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, with its principal office and place of business located at 601 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, California.

PAR. 3. Respondent is now and has been engaged in the operation of a chain of retail consumer electronic stores in California and Nevada. In the operation of its retail stores, respondent is now and has been distributing, advertising, offering for sale and selling, among other items, electronic appliances, including but not limited to television receivers, video cassette recorders, stereo equipment, and video cameras, all of which are consumer products. Therefore, respondent is both a supplier and seller of consumer products.

PAR. 4. The acts and practices of respondent alleged in this complaint have been in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 5. In the ordinary course and conduct of its aforesaid business, respondent regularly sells or offers for sale consumer products for purposes other than resale or use in the ordinary course of the buyer's business. Therefore, respondent is a seller of consumer products.

PAR. 6. On or after March 12, 1987, respondent, in the ordinary course of its business as a seller of consumer products actually costing more than $15 and manufactured on or after January 1, 1977, has failed to make the texts of written warranties readily available for examination by prospective buyers prior to sale through utilization of one or both of the following methods required by 16 CFR 702.3(a), as amended:

1. Displaying the text of the warranty in close proximity to the warranted product;
2. Furnishing the text of the warranty upon request prior to sale and placing signs reasonably calculated to elicit the prospective buyer's attention in prominent locations in the store or department advising such prospective buyers of the availability of warranties upon request.

PAR. 7. Respondent's failure to comply with the provisions of 16 CFR Part 702, as amended, constituted and now constitutes a violation of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and, pursuant to Section 110(b) thereof, an unfair or deceptive practice under Section 5(a)(1) of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 45(a)(1).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Federal Trade Commission having initiated an investigation of certain acts and practices of the respondent named in the caption hereof, and the respondent having been furnished thereafter with a copy of a draft of complaint which the San Francisco Regional Office proposed to present to the Commission for its consideration and which, if issued by the Commission would charge respondent with violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act; and

The respondent, its attorney, and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an agreement containing a consent order, an admission by the respondent of all the jurisdictional facts set forth in the aforesaid draft of complaint, a statement that the signing of said agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by respondent that the law has been violated as alleged in such complaint, and waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission's rules; and

The Commission having thereafter considered the matter and having determined that it had reason to believe that the respondent has violated the said Act, and that complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect, and having thereupon accepted the executed consent agreement and placed such agreement on the public record for a period of sixty (60) days, and no comments having been filed thereafter by interested parties pursuant to Section 2.34 of its Rules, now in further conformity with the procedure prescribed in Section 2.34 of its Rules, the Commission hereby makes the following jurisdictional findings and enters the following order:

1. Respondent The Good Guys, Inc., is a corporation organized, existing, and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, with its principal office and place of business located at 601 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, California.

2. The acts and practices of respondent alleged in this complaint have been in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

3. The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this proceeding and of the respondent, and the proceeding is in the public interest.

ORDER

The definitions of terms contained in Section 101 of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15 U.S.C. 2301, and in Rule 702, 16 CFR 702.1, promulgated thereunder, shall apply to the terms of this order.

IV.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall instruct all future retail store managers and assistant managers who will be engaged in the sale of consumer products on behalf of respondent, before they assume said responsibilities for respondent, as to their specific obligations and duties under the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act (15 U.S.C. 2301) and this order.

V.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of service of this order, develop and implement a program to instruct its sales personnel about the availability and location of warranty information.

available by respondent's retail store outlets for examination by prospective buyers on request.

VII.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any dissolution, assignment, or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries, or any other change in the corporation that may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

VIII.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service of this order on it, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.
